

Osha Thai Celebrates 27th Anniversary with New Menu Items in San Francisco & Napa Valley

San Francisco & Napa Valley, CA- Osha Thai, the acclaimed Bay Area-based Thai restaurant established in 1996, is thrilled to announce the release of menus in celebration of its 27th anniversary. The menu was crafted by renowned executive chef, Lalita Souksamlane, who utilized contemporary techniques to highlight authentic Thai flavors with a modern twist. Showcasing dishes that feature entirely new flavors never before tasted at Osha Thai.

With three decades of culinary experience and deep roots in California's Thai food movement, Chef Lalita Souksamlane has masterfully crafted new dishes that combine classic Thai flavors with modern twists. The result is an extraordinary culinary experience that will tantalize taste buds and excite the senses.

Menu highlights include Tom Yum Seafood Paella: A medley of premium seafood with "Tom Yum" hot and spicy fried rice served on a lava stone plate; Lalita's Famous Fried Chicken: Plated in authentic Thai fashion served with her signature peanut-papaya salad and sticky rice, Osha's Tom Yum Goong Hot Pot: Tom Yum soup with fresh water prawns, egg, cabbage, mushroom, udon noodles served in a jumbo hot pot, Herbal Pork Belly: Crispy pork belly tossed with garlic, kaffir lime and pandan leaves, and so many more!

The new menu also includes vegetarian dishes, such as Old Fashioned Corn Fritters: Street-style corn fritters, roasted peanuts and R-Jard cucumber salad, and the Triangles Tofu: A Japanese-Thai fusion featuring crispy tofu and peanut brittle dressing.

"We are excited to unveil our new menu, which is a culmination of our passion for authentic Thai cuisine and our commitment to innovation and creativity," said Lalita Souksamlane, Executive Chef at Osha Thai. "We hope that our guests will enjoy the new flavors, and that it will continue to cement Osha Thai as one of the top Thai restaurants in San Francisco."

The new menus are now available at Osha Thai San Francisco and Napa Valley. For more information, please visit Osha Thai's website at www.oshathai.com.
